

Welcome to UNT Housing and Residence Life

Sunday Fun Day
August 23, 2009
8:00 AM

What Many Students Bring:

bath and extra long bed linens	computer	ear plugs	renters' insurance policy
microwave & mini fridge	personal/portable stereo	calling card or cell phone	coins and soap for laundry
DVD player or VCR	headphones	in-season clothing	alarm clock
non-halogen reading lamp	personal hygiene items	Ethernet card and cord	plasma wide-screen TV

What Not to Bring:

- Extension cords (unless they have a built-in surge protector)
- Candles
- Pets (unless Fluffy can live under water for 30 minutes)
- Weapons (We realize what a sacrifice this is and thank you for it!)
- Valuable personal items
- Christmas, Hanukkah, or “Winter Solstice” lights
- Any banned appliance (Generally one with an exposed heating element. A list of prohibited appliances is available on our ABC's online.)
- Full-size side by side Amana frost free refrigerator

If Challenges Occur, Who Students May Call:

Resident Assistant—general information and help; live on the wing with the students

Desk Clerk—maintenance problems, room changes, general information

Hall Director—any of the previous that seem to stay unresolved

Assignments and Collections—for questions about your bill or room/ roommate assignments; for extensions if you can't pay your bill on time. Just call us or come by Crumley Hall.

Director—for additional help with any of the previous.

Counselors— each student may use up to 8 free sessions with a counselor

What You Can Find on Our Website (www.unt.edu/housing)

- Your account balance
- The Terms and Conditions of your contract
- Your room number and roommate information
- A few ways to pay your Housing bill online
- The ABCs of Residence Life (housing policies)
- Floor plans for all the residence halls
- Links to housing organization websites

Benefits of Living on Campus

- On-campus residents statistically have a higher success rate than off-campus residents.
- Our staff is trained to help you find the academic, personal, financial and social resources the university offers.
- We strive to make our halls a safe and secure place to live
- People, programs and staff help provide a better sense of belonging.
- Eat as much as you want as often as you want—and you don't have to cook!
- Time from waking up to sitting in class can be perfected to a 10 minute art.

What is Included in Your Fee:

- Utilities, hot water, air conditioning and heating
- High-speed T-3 internet access
- Cable hookup with way too many channels to distract you from your studies
- Mailbox in the Union
- Access to residence hall common areas—computer labs/kitchenette/game tables.
- Staying over Thanksgiving & Spring Break (Winter break is extra)
- All-you-can-eat at your choice of 6 cafeterias
- Regaining the use of that extra bedroom at home...Priceless!!

See you
Sunday Fun Day!

August 23rd beginning at 8 am

(or any time before classes start on
Thursday if festivities,
food, fun and crowds
aren't your thing!)
